Introduction:

Why did you come to Clarion? Among the several reasons was probably the goal "to gain a better education." Most of us will graduate with more knowledge and maybe even more wisdom than when we first entered college.

In recognition of the 1976 Bicentennial Celebration, the Sequelle is including some quotations from a few famous Americans. Hopefully, these words of wisdom on knowledge and wisdom will help you all make it through the next "100 years."

The Sequelle, in case you hadn't noticed, is the college's yearbook. Our staff is comprised of students from any major field of study and from any class level. Some assistance is available to the staff in preparing the book, but the great majority of the work is done entirely by the students. There are a variety of jobs in this operation including: editor-in-chief, assistant editor, photography editor, section editors, photographers, and staff positions (layout workers, typists, errand runners, etc.). Although previous experience is helpful, it is not always required to become an active member of the staff. Our office is in the basement (Room 015) of Harvey Hall.

The 1976 staff hopes that you will enjoy this year's Sequelle and would like to wish everyone success in the coming year.

Student Senate

The Student Senate is the official representative voice of the student body. All funds from the Clarion Student Association pass through this organization to be distributed for student activities. Recognition of student organizations, starting new committees, and appointing students to existing committees are all functions of Student Senate.

The Role Of Organizations At CSC. . .

What have you done since you've been at Clarion State College, Clarion, Pa.?

If you didn't drop out or flunk out, you must have done some serious studying. This is obviously an important part of college life.

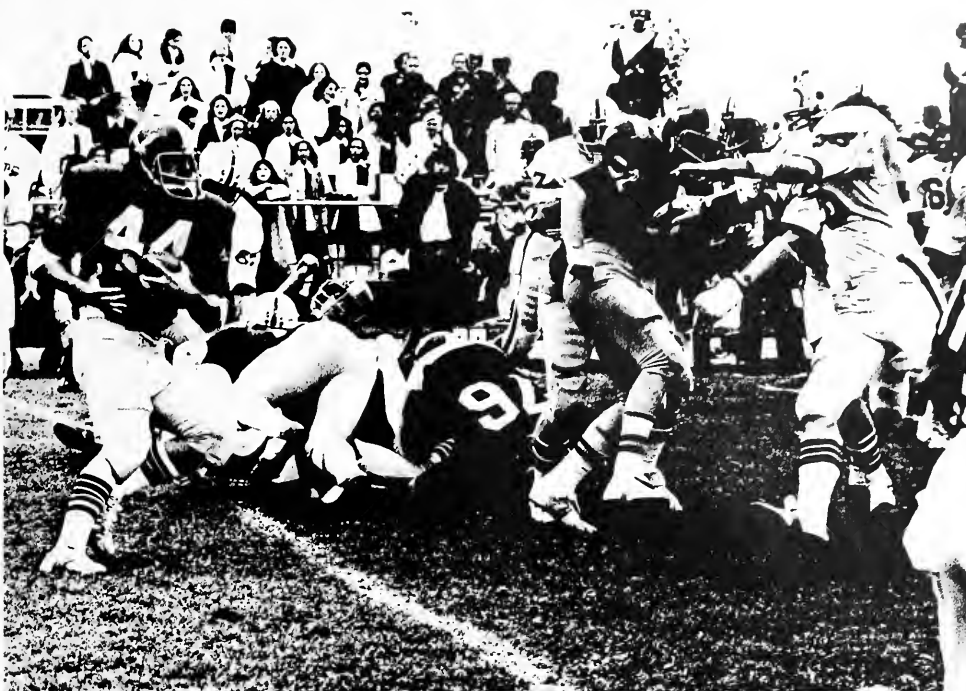

But, what did you do in your free time and on weekends? Were you one of the many students who helped to give Clarion the nickname, "the suitcase college"?

Maybe you were one of the lucky people who discovered that although "there is never anything to do at Clarion," there are some really good lectures, concerts, and shows on campus.

You may have been ambitious enough to become involved with a sport, intramurals, or a frat or sorority.

Perhaps, however, you are one of those students who is still looking for "something," and you don't think you can satisfy that need with just shows, sports, greeks, and weekend trips home.

What can you do to make college life more exciting and meaningful? Well, if you are one of those "famous people" under the senior '76 section, it's a little late to do anything.

But, if you are still at CSC, you just may solve your problem by "becoming more involved!" This campus offers more organizations and special interest groups than you might think. Each one has members who probably have more in common with you than other students, and most groups are supported with CSA funds from your activity fee.

So, why not get a little more out of what Clarion has to offer by joining one or two campus organizations? It will be well worth your time and money!

The Interfraternity Council (IFC) is the governing group of Clarion's nine social fraternities. One representative from each fraternity serves on the council which coordinates the social, rushing and pledging activities of the member fraternities.

Athletically, Greeks are perennial powers in the intramural sports program and sponsor a Greek Olympics each spring.

Scholarship is not neglected, however, as each spring during Greek Weekend a trophy is presented to the fraternity with the highest academic average. Philanthropic works are also a part of Greek life, a yearly blood drive is just one example of the public spirit of Clarion's fraternities.

I.F.C. works with the Panhellenic Council to promote good relations between sororities and fraternities. The betterment of Greek life at Clarion is the goal of this cooperation.

The officers of I.F.C. are: President- Pat Lewis, Vice-President- Gary Manion, Secretary- Rich Kuhus (not Present), Treasurer- Joe Sarso, and Hal Wassink.

Phi Sigma Kappa

Phi Sigma Kappa is a National Fraternity founded in 1873 at the University of Massachusetts and inducted here at Clarion in 1967. On campus we are known as the "Kappas" and through striving to fulfill our Cardinal Principles of Brotherhood, Scholarship, and Character; we believe we have built one of the finer Greek organizations on campus. Naturally we hold many social functions, but our brotherhood is also concerned with providing services such as the semi-annual book co-op, distributing free desk blotters to CSC students, along with several charity drives each year. Our fraternity also encourages an active participation in campus activities. Many of our brothers are active in Student Senate, The Call, W.C.C.B., the baseball team, and the Clarion Foundation along with many student-faculty committees. Our main goal in Phi Sigma Kappa is to achieve a fine blend of academic, social, and service activities.

Never placing an emphasis on numbers, we are one of the most closely knit groups on campus. Taking the Greek Scholarship Trophy (fraternity division) for five out of the past seven years, scholarship, along with intramurals, are our strong points. Never neglecting the social life, we have a Spring Formal, a Parent-Brother Picnic, and Semi-Formal Christmas Party to mention a few. With 76 years of national fraternity history behind us, we welcome all to visit us at our new locations at 608 and 610 South Street.

Members are active in such campus activities as Student Senate, Athletics, Honor Societies, Choir, and many, many others. We, "Phi Sigs", maintain a solid fraternity, both scholastically and socially. There is nothing that one Phi Sig would not do for another, and it is this fraternal spirit that makes us what we are.

Conclusion . . .

Before God we are all equally

Editor's Message

I've been thinking about what great "philosophical message" to write on this page of the Sequelle all year. After looking at the editors' messages in several of the past Sequelles, I find that I don't really have anything new and original to say. The most important thing to an editor and his staff is to know that you, the students, liked the book. We tried to make the 1976 Sequelle "something special" for all of you.

This book would never be complete without giving special thanks to the people who helped us "get it together":

Bernie Magirl, Walsworth Publishing Co., Inc.

Abe Orlick, Davor Photo, Inc.

Myron Klingensmith, Clarion Students Assoc.

Ann Gloekler, assistant editor

the Sequelle staff and all of you other people who we bugged for help.

Once again, I hope you all enjoy the book, and "Best Wishes" to everyone.

- Robin E. Thomas
editor
